“ Moe and I worked together for a few years. Moe had great knowledge of the car biz and loved to come back to finance and pick at me. He would make me so mad at times then he would have me laughing so hard because of his practical jokes he played on sales people. There was never a dull moment with Moe around. I loved his sense of humor and we had many long conversations. It was clear that Moe loved Marty and his girls and all those grand babies so much. I pray that you all will find peace remembering the good times and knowing how much he loved you all! RIP my friend!
