

Paxton Lane Harrison

March 18, 1998 - January 15, 2019

Paxton's style and personality was one in a million. He was one that never met a stranger. He had his own special gift and way to place a part of himself into each and everyone's heart he came in contact with, from his silly grins to his outstanding laugh and most of all his willingness to lend a hand to help anyone that needed it whether it was just to talk or a shoulder to cry on .

Paxton loved fishing, hunting and dancing!

Paxton was loved by many and so many more than anyone will ever have known.

Although Paxton is gone from this earth he will never be gone from our hearts and we will forever have amazing memories of the times we all had with him. So, keep a part of him in your heart mind and soul and he will never ever be gone from this world!!!!

Paxton Lane Harrison

Loving Son, Brother and most of all Friend. Love you forever!!!!

“ Pax and I go way back and kept in touch. He was the first to make sure I was good when I got in a wreck and offered to drive me home and that I was 100% okay. He always had a smile to give and a heart of gold. Gonna miss you babe.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. We remember Paxton when he was a little guy.....very ambitious and busy with the cutest smile ever. He was part of the children that gathered with the Peaster Volunteer Fire Dept. Our daughter kept him one summer when he was about 6 or 7 years old. We are praying for you to have strength, comfort and understanding at this time. Mike and Toni Norris

“ I have been sitting here for a while now trying to think of something to say. I know that anything I say won't make the pain go away. As you know Paxton was an amazing friend/ person with a heart of gold. I've never met you (mom) or the rest of his family. I met Paxton at a tack store and we hit off. We became close friends almost instantly. About 7/8 months of meeting him I moved away. Paxton still kept In Touch with me even though I was 5 hours away. When I heard the news my heart shattered. I'm so deeply sorry for your loss. I did not know him as long or as well but I'm so blessed that I got to know him and meet him. He made such an impact in my life and sadly i didn't realize this sooner. He is An amazing person with a heart of gold. He never let me not smile and every memory with him is positive. Rest In Peace Paxton lane Harrison. You will never be forgotten.

“ I remember meeting him at TMS and he's the reason why I know a lot of people in the stockyard. He always got people to come together and if you didn't have any friends, he made friends for you. If you were cold or wet, he would give the shirt off his back. One of the realist, funny, honest, kind person I have met. Rest easy buddy

“ You was one of the wildest and funnest SOBs that I got to know at Prs. From arguing over the dance floor bout the “walking style dancing” to the many matches of pool trying to one up one another. To the laughs joking and picking on certain people. U was /were/will always be a hell of a guy in my mind and heart/memories. BROTHER U WILL BE MISSED BY MANY NOW/FOREVER.

NOW U CAN CONTINUE THAT pimp squad that we joked bout. But now in

HEAVENLY WAYS

Gonna miss ya brother. “” LOVE FOR ETERNITY””

“ I remember when I lived in Fort Worth and I'd go to neon every Saturday and see you there, I'd flip you off and yell “fuck you pax”, you would turn around and run to give me the biggest hug and tell me how glad you were to see me. But the one memorie I'd never forget is when you I came to the bar and you found out my ex cheated on me, you came up to me, gave me the biggest hug and told me “ He's a dumbass because he just lost the greatest thing that will ever happen to him”. I love you pax, you'll always be my favorite butthead

“ The first time I met you in April you put a smile on my face, you were such a great friend. You would walk up to me and be like “hey shorty” , you're the only person who calls me shorty and I'll miss it. You're such a great friend, my mom will take good care of you in heaven. We love you

adrianna - January 17, 2019 at 03:59 PM

“ Paxton first night I met you was two years ago, outside Neon. You never met a stranger. You always had a smile on your face. Everyone has a huge hole in their heart since you've passed. God always takes the brightest souls.

Avril Birdwell - January 17, 2019 at 03:55 PM

“ I remember when Shelby and I were little girls we would run down the hall and beat on Paxs door and he would chase us all the way back to her room. We would do that for hours and he never failed to keep us laughing. I didn't get to know him very well as an adult but I wish I could've. My prayers go out to the Harrison family.
